

ALLIES ACCEPT BERLIN ENVOYS.

Recognize Hun Government as Country's Rulers.

Exchange of Credentials Marks Initial Meeting.

Teuton Delegation to Have 15 Days to Study Treaty.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PARIS, May 2.—The Credentials Committee of the Peace Conference held a meeting today to examine the German credentials received at Versailles yesterday.

There is no disposition, it is said, on the part of the Allies and the United States to raise any questions regarding the competency of the Berlin government to speak for the remainder of Germany. They are proceeding on the theory that the Berlin Ministry is the real German government.

The German delegates to the Peace Conference today expressed themselves as well satisfied that the first meeting, Thursday, with representatives of the Allied and associated powers, took the form of a mutual exchange of credentials rather than a re-examination of the production of the credentials for purposes of identification. They take this as an indication that the negotiations are to be conducted on a basis of equality.

It is felt that the final disposition of the enemy ships is purely an internal Allied question and not one for inclusion in the treaty, which provides only for the surrender of the vessels. This action is regarded as indicating the warships will not be sunk or destroyed.

After the enemy ships are divided among the Allies, each power will decide on the disposition of its own quota. The general impression here is that the French and Italians will retain their share and incorporate the vessels in their present fleets, while the British and American tendency inclines to the destruction of their quotas.

The disposition of the German Atlantic and Pacific cables again is before the council of three, with some prospect of settlement after new lines. This prospect that the cables shall be administered jointly by the five great powers, and that an international cable congress can consider the entire question of cables between the different countries.

This plan is alternative to the German cables being taken as prizes of war by the countries which capture them, principally Great Britain, France and Japan. The latter's representatives still maintain the right to hold them as prizes of war.

BELOIAN PROTEST. The Belgian delegation to the Peace Conference is expressing dissatisfaction over the terms of the preliminary for peace as they affect Belgium. Some of the territorial claims of Belgium have been granted, except that for Malmedy, in Euphrates, where the population of which before the war was largely Walloon. Malmedy will revert to Belgium.

Of the $500,000,000 already mentioned as an immediate financial indemnity for Belgium, only one-half the amount has been placed in Belgium's credit in Allied countries as yet. The balance of the loan, no provision has been made for the recall by Germany of the six billion marks which she is to pay. Belgium and now in Belgium banks and vaults bearing no interest and unproductive. The Belgian mark in Belgium is not permitted.

M. Delcroix, the Belgian Premier, arrived in London today to deliver a message of protest from the Belgian Senate. M. Delcroix is expected to appear before the council of three to make representations concerning the terms granted Belgium.

The naval terms to be embodied in the peace treaty, which finally have been completed, do not provide for the sinking of the larger vessels of the Kaiser's fleet. These vessels are to be left to be decided upon later by the Allied and associated powers.

No formal programme was announced for today's session of the council of three, but it was unofficially stated that the meeting was being devoted to odds and ends.

Before the council went into session President Wilson received members of the Military Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives.

CHINESE STATEMENT. The Chinese delegation to the Peace Conference is expected to issue this afternoon a statement concerning the settlement of the Szechuan dispute effected by the council of three. It is understood the Chinese will express their dissatisfaction.

The peace treaty comprises from fifteen to twenty chapters, according to Marcel Rabin, of the Echo de Paris.

The preamble is contained in the first chapter, setting forth the reasons why the various contracting parties entered the war and mentioning the necessity for the League of Nations.

The second chapter deals with the German frontiers, and the third contains all clauses connected with alterations of frontiers. The fourth sets forth the military, naval and aerial clauses, and the fifth takes up the disposition of the German colonies.

The other chapters are not as yet altogether finished, but they will concern reparations, economic and financial questions and will deal with the international labor legislation treaty. The treaty concludes with a chapter concerning the guarantee for the execution of the treaty conditions by Germany.

M. Huttin adds he believes the German delegation has full powers and will end the negotiations by signing the preliminaries of the treaty.

A Ukrainian delegation is on its way to Paris to begin negotiations regarding an armistice between the Ukrainians and Poland.

Union Dictation is Repudiated at Harbor. FLOUTED BONDS NOT BAIL.

HARBOR STRIKE DECLARED.

Shipbuilding Industry Held up by Union Demand for Recognition.

GROW AS LEADER.

At the last election H. G. Grimes was not re-elected to the committee of three, and the machinists refused to do as the other crafts did—trust in dealings with the company to the committee—but under the leadership of Grimes proposed to appoint a union committee to do business with the company on affairs affecting machinists employed at the yard. Grimes sent his announcement to General Manager Naphthali, and after declaring to his men that his union committee plan had been turned down, Grimes took his troubles to the Metal Trades Council in Los Angeles, which ordered the strike. Strike meetings were held at the various union halls at the harbor last night. The machinists' union, to which the largest number of men at the plant belong, met at the Auditorium at Long Beach. The strikers say the trouble has been brewing for months, and so far as they are concerned now it is a "show down" on whether the plant recognizes the union. The men say they will fight to a finish.

COMPANY'S STATEMENT.

The official statement on behalf of the company follows: "At the outset, it should be understood that the disagreement which has arisen between the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock Company and certain of its employees does not involve any questions as to wages, hours and working conditions.

"The issue which has arisen involves a question as to whether the company should deal with shop committees elected by the employees of the company or whether certain labor unions, composed largely of persons not in the employ of the company, should be allowed to appoint such shop committees to represent the employees of the company.

"The company has, in accordance with the well-established policy in Southern California, maintained open-shop conditions in its yards, the maintenance of which conditions have been guaranteed not only by the Macey Labor Adjustment Board representing the Emergency Fleet Corporation, but also by the so-called Fair-Wash Board, which has denied the labor policy for the entire country. In furtherance of this policy the company has at all times been, and now is, willing to deal with committees selected by its own employees, and this policy is also in accordance with the regulations of the Emergency Fleet Corporation as expressed by the decision of the Macey Labor Adjustment Board.

CAUSE OF STRIKE.

"The relations between the company and its employees have at all times been amicable, due to its policy of dealing directly with its employees through shop committees representing these employees. The present difficulty arises through the attempt of one of the local labor unions to foist upon the company a committee which was not chosen by the employees, but elected by the union instead, which sought to foist a substitution of this union for the committee which represented the employees of the company and was then in office. Following this attempt, the union gave written notice to the company of the election of the committee by the union and demanded that the company recognize the committee as elected, which recognition would also involve recognition of the union as the exclusive bargaining agent for the employees and an abandonment of the open-shop policy.

NOT WITH UNIONS.

"The company is willing to deal with committees properly elected by its own employees, as it has done in the past, but refuses to permit the union, composed largely of persons not even in the employ of the company, to select a committee to represent employees of the company in their dealings with the company, especially in view of the fact that a large proportion of the employees of this yard are not members of union organizations and could not be properly represented by a committee selected by such union organizations.

"When the demand was made that the company recognize the committee selected by the union, a conference was held, which was attended by Henry W. Adams, representing the Emergency Fleet Corporation. After hearing the case, Mr. Adams determined that in accordance with the decision of the Macey Labor Adjustment Board the appointment of this committee should be made by the employees, at an election at which all employees should vote by secret ballot, and not by an outside union organization, such election to be under the supervision of a representative of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

"The company agreed to the suggestion of Mr. Adams, but was met with a flat refusal to accept anything but complete recognition of the union committee, whereupon it was suggested that the matter be referred to A. J. Gray, assistant district manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, for the Southern Pacific district, who was in San Pedro at the time. This was also refused, the ultimatum being given that unless the company agreed to recognize the union committee, the men would be ordered to leave.

"This action by the local union in direct violation of the policy laid out by the United States government, to govern the relations of employers and employees, and is an event which this is but an other attempt of the labor unions to force the closed shop on the employees of Southern California and to jeopardize the open shop policy which has contributed so materially to the prosperity of this section of the State."

WAITED FOR PEACE.

Ground was broken for the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock Company on June 3, 1919, and the first ship was launched from the yards on December 11, six months later. At the height of the war-production of ships for the government the yard employed nearly 10,000 men and was turning out two 450-ton steamers every thirty days. Speed was the requirement in those days, and the made-in-Los Angeles ships made good both in the speed with which they were turned out and their performance after they were turned over to the government. At that time the yard was paying out in wages $10,000 a day.

When the war was over, the yard was still paying out the same wages, but the government was no longer paying for the ships. The men, however, still wanted to work, and they could tie up the yard with a strike in wartime. The men and the management have always worked in harmony, but the labor leaders were determined to put their walking delegates in as bosses on committees between the company and the men. It was only a question of time when the labor leaders would force a "show down."

With the shutting down of the yards as the war ended, the yard completed four vessels and six nearly completed vessels in the water in which the labor leaders were being placed.

Since the yard was begun, on a barge strake of tideland, and a great industry developed, there have been sixteen vessels launched at the yard. The strike halts the construction of the ship on the ways and of the remaining seventeen vessels to be built for the government at these yards. This means a tremendous loss in wages and money spent in Southern California, and in the development of the harbor industry.

WOMAN WINS LAND.

Cultivates in Alone, Appears as Own Attorney, and Is Victor.

Mrs. Virginia B. Lewis, who appeared before local Land Office officials as her own attorney in a contest instituted by Edward W. Stegeman, for the possession of a quarter-section of land in Mint Canyon, won her case, by a decision handed down yesterday by Register Groves and Receiver Mitchell.

It appeared from the evidence that the husband of Mrs. Lewis has been a sufferer from locomotor ataxia for a number of years, and that the care of the household devolved upon her to the extent that in the eyes of the law she was the head of the family and entitled to make a homestead claim.

Stegeman, who homesteaded an adjoining quarter-section, was anxious to add to his holding, and charged that Mrs. Lewis had done the work on her land required by the law, but the local land office charged that there was nothing substantial in his claim, and that Mrs. Lewis is entitled to the undisturbed possession of a piece of mining land at McNeill Island. The arguments will be before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

ASK FACTS ON SHIP BUILDING.

Commerce Chamber and Osborn Were Hurled on Reported Stopping Work.

Telegrams were sent yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce to Chairman Edward N. Hurley of the United States Shipping Board, asking him to wire the chamber the facts in connection with the report that there will be an early cancellation of Pacific Coast government shipbuilding contracts.

To Willis H. Booth, formerly of the Security Trust and Savings Bank here, and now of the Guaranty Trust Company, New York, the chamber has sent the following telegram:

"If necessary, could you go to Washington to protest cancellation of shipbuilding contracts on Pacific Coast?" Congressman Osborne also telegraphed to Mr. Hurley expressing the hope that the report as to stopping work is incorrect and presenting reasons why no contracts should be canceled.

ATTEMPTED TO INCITE NEGRO REVOLUTION?

SUCH IS CHARGE THAT GERMAN MUST FACE AT FEDERAL COURT SESSION.

United States District Judge Triplett, accompanied by Assistant United States District Attorney Palmer, will go to Fresno tomorrow night, where a two-day session of the Federal court will be held. Several espionage cases are to be disposed of, among others.

Suspected of being financed by the Wilhelmstrasse, in Berlin the Espionage Act case against Ernest Paul Fischer will be the leading case to be disposed of at Fresno. The charge against the accused is that he was attempting to incite a revolution among the negroes of Southern California, in support of a similar movement started in the South during the late war. The plan was to induce the negroes to refuse to register.

Upon the adjournment of the court, Mr. Palmer will go to San Francisco to argue an appeal of Charles J. Schluise, who was convicted in San Diego, on the charge of violation of the Espionage Act, and given four years, and of Ricardo Flores Magon and Librado Rivera, who were convicted in the local court of violating the same act, and sentenced, respectively, to twenty and fifteen years in the Federal prison at McNeill Island. The arguments will be before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

Liberty Bonds, which were the main subject of the crowd's jeering speeches at Rose Hill Park Thursday afternoon just before their arrest under the red-flag ordinance, were offered yesterday in Police Judge Chambers' court as cash bail by Mrs. Anna Hartman and Samuel Waiseman. The bonds were refused and each of the confessed I.W.W. and Bolsheviks were forced to give cash bail of $250.

Through their attorneys, J. I. Ryckman and A. Shapiro, the two prisoners entered a plea of not guilty and asked for a jury trial. Judge Chambers ordered the trial for May 20 at 10 a.m., and set bail at $2 each. The Liberty Bonds were produced after the bail had been set, and offered as cash by the attorneys for the defense.

In a ringing speech to the court, Deputy City Prosecutor Lyle Pendegast denounced the offer of Liberty Bonds as cash bail by the alleged Bolsheviks, and requested the judge to order the placing of bail in currency. Prosecutor Pendegast in his request stated that just before their arrest the two prisoners had made the bonds the subject of a jeering address, and should not be allowed to use them as bail. Judge Chambers then ordered the defendants to furnish bail in money.

Weisman and Mrs. Hartman were arrested late Thursday afternoon by Philo Larnihan when the mounted soap boxes during a picnic of the Women's Garment Workers' Union at Rose Hill Park and began to wave red banners. The two also are charged with being Bolsheviks and the police say admit the charge.

MAN ENTICER TRIES TO DODGE PENALTY?

JUDGE ORDERS HER TO PRODUCE BONDS GIVEN TO "GENTLEMAN FRIEND."

Mrs. Nellie Lee, who was made a defendant in the lost-love suit of Mrs. Maud E. Burdick before a jury in Judge Monroe's court last March, and against whom a judgment of $1750 was returned, was given until Wednesday by presiding Judge Waller, yesterday, to produce Liberty Bonds, which she said she had turned over to a "gentleman friend" to invest.

Attorneys Keeler and Doyle claimed that she turned over the bonds for the purpose of evading payment of the judgment. Mrs. Lee denied this, but admitted she did not know where her friend was, but believed he was traveling out of the State.

Mrs. Lee, it seems, before the lost-love suit was tried, sold her home to A. H. Gregg of Whittier, receiving in part payment Liberty Bonds of the value of $2500. She appeared in court yesterday in supplementary proceedings.

In the lost-love suit she was charged with enticing Page Burdick from his wife. She denied the charge.

CITY ISN'T BROKE.

Has Cash on Hand of Over Five Million Dollars.

The city of Los Angeles has on hand or on deposit with fiscal agents in cash and securities $19,514,448.23, according to the report filed yesterday by City Treasurer Fowler. The cash balance on hand actually in the city treasury on April 30 was $3,251,448.

JAPANESE KILLED.

H. Iuchi, 35 years of age, a Japanese employed as janitor of an apartment-house at No. 1021 South Hope street, later today appeared in court charged with the murder of a Japanese who was killed when he pitched head first from a third-story window to the pavement in front of the apartment-house. According to the police, who investigated the accident, Iuchi was cleaning a window on the third floor of the building and lost his balance and plunged to the street.

BURGE TO TELL OF FAR EAST INTRIGUE.

On the eve of his departure for Washington, R. T. Burge, prominent Los Angeles business man, and until recently overseas secretary for the M.C.A.A. with the American forces in Siberia, will give a free lecture on the situation in the Orient. The lecture will be given at Trinity Auditorium tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Burge electrified Los Angeles recently with his lectures on the Bolsheviks in Russia and Siberia. In his address tomorrow night he promises to tell in detail the true story of the Orient under the present post-war conditions.

FLEMING THANKED BY STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

A resolution of appreciation of the work of Assemblyman A. P. Fleming in behalf of the schools at the recent session of the Legislature was adopted on Friday by the faculty of Los Angeles State Normal School.

"In working as you have to bring our plans to fruition we believe you have rendered a distinct and noteworthy service to the cause of education in the State and in Southern California in particular," the resolution says.

DAMAGES FOR FILM STAR.

Miss Dorothy Dean, film star, was awarded $600 damages by Judge Valentine yesterday in her action against Ed N. Harmon, a wealthy Sherman avocado grower, for injuries received in an automobile accident. She was driving her automobile at La Brea avenue and Santa Monica boulevard on November 6 last, when it collided with the car driven by Mr. Harmon. She was thrown from the automobile and injured. Mr. Harmon alleged he had the right of way and that Miss Dean was negligent.

CONVICTED AS ROBBER.

A jury yesterday found William R. Croom guilty of robbery and Judge Craig set Monday as the day for sentence. Croom and Richard Asbury were accused of robbing T. J. Clark of Lancaster, of $65. Asbury's trial will be held May 16.

WIRE PUT DOWN ISLAND BORE.

Water Supply for Shipyard is Precarious, so They'll Drill for It.

Chief Engineer Mulholland of the water department was authorized by the Board of Public Service Commissioners yesterday, to bore for water to supply Terminal Island. Water is now delivered to the island, on which there is the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company's yard, as well as a number of residents, from the mainland by means of a main laid across the channel.

Mr. Mulholland stated to the board that there is constant danger of this main being destroyed, thus cutting off the water supply for the island.

It is expected that water will be reached at a depth of 200 feet, at an expense of $5000, and additional sums for machinery to distribute the water to the island. Work will begin at once.

BACK; NOW HELL WED.

Romance That was Halted by War is to Lead to Marriage Soon.

A romance interrupted by the war with Germany will be consummated as a result of the return from France, yesterday, of Harold Williams, son of Charles H. Williams, clerk of the United States District Court.

Young Mr. Williams was a forest ranger, but heard the call of his country, and in March, 1915, sailed for France with the Twentieth Engineers. That command was in constant service along the front of the building bridges and performing other work in the engineering line. Yesterday he reached Los Angeles, and the wedding of the young soldier to Miss Louise Green, which was postponed when he heard the bugle call of his country is announced to be among the near events of the future.

SUES ON ACCIDENT POLICY.

Josephine Kehoe, widow of Michael E. Kehoe, who died of injuries on January 1, last, filed suit yesterday against the Order of Railway Employees to recover $2000 on an accident policy issued to Mr. Kehoe. Under the terms of the policy Mr. Kehoe was to receive $20 a week for 100 weeks if he was injured. Mr. Kehoe slipped from a train at Indio and later died of his hurts. It is alleged the order refused to pay the demand.

AS INDUSTRIAL CENTER.

The Chamber of Commerce has asked the Supervisors to appropriate $50,000 in the new budget to be expended in advertising Los Angeles county as an industrial center as well as a beauty spot for tourists. The Supervisors discussed the matter in secret in the budget room.

To the Employees of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company:

The employees of the company are well aware of the fact that the company has been, and now is, willing to deal with its employees, or committees selected by its employees.

The very favorable working conditions that now prevail in the yard are in a great measure due to the co-operation that has existed between the employees through their committees and the management.

The present disagreement has been caused by the fact that the men, OTHER THAN OUR OWN EMPLOYEES, have undertaken to appoint committees to represent YOU.

In view of the fact that the company is bound by certain decisions of the Labor Adjustment Board of the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet corporation in the matter of procedure for election of such committees, it cannot recognize the appointment of these committees by men other than its own employees. We trust you are not unmindful of the same obligations which these decisions, and the benefits derived therefrom, have imposed upon you.

It is believed that many of the men who left their work at the yard yesterday did not properly understand the reasons for doing so.

The company, therefore, desires to notify you that the yard will continue to be operated as usual and that the loyal employees who left their work under a misapprehension will find their places open for them if they return at once.

KARR BURNED BY DEFENSE

Davis Calls Him as "Blackhearted as His

perate, he said: "Do it at once; even if not for more than a week." I said that was the action of a madman," answering the telegram and in not appointing Hackett proves that he was not a party to any conspiracy."

If Karr was alarmed about the matter and the Mayor had been a party to it— isn't it reasonable to suppose that he would have made haste to take action. But the Mayor didn't do it, did he?

"Among those who have been mentioned as having conspired are Owen McAleer, who is reputed to be in Dutch with the Mayor. Does that sound reasonable? Why didn't Karr sue McAleer instead of Woodman? This alleged campaign fund was vital to Woodman. It was vital to Butler. If Butler was dishonest he would have taken care to get rid of it long before $250 came from Karr's hands."

"You see all along Karr's story shot full of holes. The truth fits the truth and it won't fit anything else. I'll tell you why Karr's story doesn't hold up. He told me his wife asked Joe Craig to deposit $250 in his credit, he said: 'Why I might as well put it in a cemetery where it will stay no good.' He turns directly from one crime to the intention of another one."

"The fact is," Karr says he made the deal with the negroes

"Karr put together in his story three elements which I think are correct. Brown, who is admittedly an enemy of the Mayor, with Hackett, who has been a friend of the Mayor, and Aleser, who is admittedly in Dutch with the Mayor. To be honest, I don't see how reasonable."

"Another thing that makes Karr's story plausible is the fact that the venerable dance hall licensee, who is a white man, has been selling to negroes, and all he did was write the Mayor an ordinary note, showing his influence in the community, and the honor official has been bought and sold by crooks for years without knowing it."

"I voted for the District Attorney. Woolfeine was blinded by him. This man is a very brilliant fellow, but I think that he is an enemy of somebody, and he has been buying and selling for years, and I don't see any chance of protection for the people."

"This man," said Carr, "is not a Negro, but a blackhound." No He is a white man," said Macbeth to let the Chief hear what Macbeth thought about Hackett. As Macbeth's opinion of Hackett was not good, he asked Carr if he should the Mayor get his expert opinion from—a negro who might have an axe to grind against Carr? Carr told him who supplies the officer's work?

"If the Mayor was not anxious at that moment to have Hackett appointed, I would probably object to sending telegrams from Carr. If he had been planning to raise a campaign fund among the gamblers here, it would have jumped up in my estimation. I think you all regard Butler as an honest man, and let us judge Woodman upon the testimony of those who know him."

"Woolwine introduces Carr to convict the Mayor. Carr's heart is blacker than the skin of the negroes. He has tried to seduce me, and I testify that he sold his honor to negroes for $250. He professes an blame on Woodman.

"This man," for $250—administered to Carr, and I don't want to see a piker—would throw down a great city like Los Angeles for $250 and says he doesn't see any more in it."

"Nobody," said Carr, ever saw anything like that. There was no agreement existed between Carr and the Mayor. The telegram to the Mayor he said he was going to write a story about Woodman being mentioned for Senator Carr. Carr said he would not have sunk to put something over again; wasn't he?"

"It has been shown by the Chief, Butler and Capt. Murray that the Mayor had nothing to do with the appointment of Hackett. Ten years ago Carr was a member of the Metropolitan Police Department in the Chinatown square. In a district which Carr himself gave up as a bad place, Carr was a very good fellow. Drew that indicate that a crooked deal had been put across?"

justifies the attempt to corrupt Mayron and collect blood money from him.

Woolwine says: "Behold I show you a miracle—a pure stream of water flowing from a cesspool. I invite you to drink. It sweetens the air, you, members of the jury, that you must consider the character of Karr, who now here upon the stand, and admitted to you that he is a criminal. If you would believe him then tell your children to waste no time in building character. Because jurors will take no notice of it."

"Karr told you that he hid out from the grand jury because he saw the dots of the sentence of the morning. And then he went and bought his liberty from the District Attorney. He went farther—he sold his life and his beloved story to the newspapers."

"Karr told the grand jury he had good name—the only thing that will save him. But he has no money. Money has not been rooted, either here or in the grand jury room. Does like Brown and Karr now back, but right with General, and I assure you'll bring in a verdict of vindication."

will be able to give to Lee Glasgow an honest and efficient administration because he has proved his business ability in his private enterprises.

Mr. Campbell never has no political ambitions, no political debts to pay and old the trial jury. He had only one thing to say. He said that did that because he thought he might have to explain acts dating back a year. Now Karr said his trial was over. He said that Boone says he introduced Karr and Henderson down on Spring street.

"But Armstrong, who, Karr says was a trial witness," said Woodman, says he was in Karr's room in Sacramento when the Hughes family called, and he (Armstrong) was with them. He said such conversation as Karr related to you ever took place there."

"The law says that if you declare a portion of the testimony of a witness you cannot accept any of it. Karr says he rode out to the Hughes place and saw them. But Hughes says that he didn't. Mayor Woodman declares he didn't, and the chauffeur avows that he did not.

"Karr has a thorough knowledge of the needs of a great municipality and he is a man of high character."

"Now that the people's minds have been relieved of the unpleasant responsibility of considering the merits of the testimony against you, these court proceedings, the diddly of Sylvester L. Weaver and the other candidates of the Association, will be projected with renewed vigor and none of the members of this organization entertains whatsoever doubts as to the outcome of the polls on May 6."

The candidates of this association are seeking election solely upon the basis of their character. They are making no pre-election promises to any individuals or factions. They have declared themselves simply for the good government of a busy, near back.

CLOSE FOR DEFENSE.

Capt. Fredericks, in closing the argument for the defense, said:

"The little lady who trips upon the stand yesterday and seemed to indicate a little domestic infidelity in the Hughes household, does not know the difference between right and wrong. She is a child. Captain Hughes tried to get his niece to do certain things, he probably acted badly, but we are not trying Tom Hughes."

"The only thing Macbeth has told the jury, that is worth while, is that Macbeth is a very good man. There is always wrangling and jangling over appointments, and the fact that Macbeth didn't look like a man. Macbeth has no weight worth while."

"And among all the witnesses of man has testified to there being a desire on the part of the Mayor to get the term up; not one of them.

"Booms told you that the negroes wanted a change, but that no particular sergeant was mentioned."

"I'd just as soon believe Henderson as Karr. Henderson's skin is black, Karr's is white. Henderson admits it himself. I'll not say a word against Karr that he hasn't already indicated in his testimony. Henderson is a white man, and he's got to go unless 'Cholo' Johnson was moved. That's what Karr was paid for. Henderson wanted to get rid of 'Cholo' Johnson. He threatened his life. Brown wanted to have 'Cholo' sent back to the University Station, and that's where he was sent. Brown said he'd give him $1000 to get Hackett back on the squad. Brown prob-

"Karr knew the negroes wanted to get rid of 'Gelo.' He knew McAlister wanted to see Hackett bang on the squad. Karr figured he could oblige both parties and rake in some easy money. He made no progress with the Mayor, and he knows the negroes will want their money back, so at Sacramento he writes to Joe Crill and tells him to

Has High Indorsement.

Indicative of the class of men who are backing the candidacy of Charles S. Burnell for City Attorney, his headquarters last night gave out the following indorsement from William J. Hunaker, one of the most widely-known lawyers of the city: "I have been acquainted with Mr. Burnell, I have observed his professional work and have had opportunity to measure his capacity and efficiency. He is exceptionally well fitted for the position to which he aspires, by reason both of his education and long experience in the City Attorney's office. During the many years that he held the position of Assistant City Attorney he had charge of much important litigation to which the city was a party, and was unusually successful in his conduct and management of its affairs. He is honest, capable, energetic, aggressive and courteous, and scrupulously ethical in the practice of his profession."

Support From Pioneers.

John R. Layne is an aggressive young man; he is a member of one of the pioneer families, and has the support of many of the pioneers in his candidacy for City Attorney. He has resided in Los Angeles thirty-three years. His practical law here sixteen years. His campaign headquarters has been the place where many of the pioneers who were prominent figures in the city when Boyle Heights, the district which he represents, were considered in the country. Mr. Layne's practice to a large degree is in the handling of real estate and title cases, which has brought him many technical points regarding city ordinances.

Weaver's Speaking Tour.

Sylvester L. Weaver, candidate for Mayor on the ticket of the Association for Betterment of Public Service, continued his speech-making drive in the industrial district yesterday and was received with great enthusiasm. At the Cudahy packing plant he undertook no formal speech, but simply grasped the hands of the employees and expressed their willingness to aid in his election. At the M. A. Newmark & Co. plant, Mr. Weaver was introduced by Marco E. Newmark, who enthusiastically indorsed his candidacy and said: "Mr. Weaver has the reputation of putting things over, and he will successfully administer the city's affairs if he is elected." The final visit was at the Wilson & Co. packing plant, where Mr. Weaver was also accorded an enthusiastic reception.

Learned's Indorsement.

The People's Economic League has indorsed the following candidates for City Attorney: Henry N. James, for City Council, Walter Mallard, W. J. Sanborn, Albert B. Conrad, A. J. Gardner, Neil P. Olsen, James P. Britt and Ralph L. Crikwell, for Board of Education, Lewis D. Collins, N. C. Edwards, John H. French, Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, Charles J. McCormick, P. D. Noel and Miss M. Jeanne York. The league's platform is to elect public officials on the basis of economy, morality and efficiency in administration of municipal affairs.

Good Words for Braunton.

H. H. Bean, member of the Board of Supervisors, in indorsing Ernest Braunton for City Council, says: "I have known Ernest Braunton for nearly twenty-four years. He is a man of ability and particularly a man of integrity. He is a man of whom I believe is a mighty valuable asset to any man in public life; that is a good stiff backbone, and he has the courage of his convictions. He has a thorough knowledge of city affairs and would represent a section of the city which is growing and expanding fast."

They Favor Snyder.

The candidacy of Meredith P. Snyder for Mayor has been indorsed by the leading motion-picture directors. The Motion Picture Directors' Association held a meeting at the Alexandria, Thursday night, and after adjournment a caucus was held informally and this action was taken. As a body, the association can take no political action. The Los Angeles Film Exchange Board of Trade, this week, adopted resolutions indorsing the Snyder candidacy.

Olsen's Council Record.

Neil P. Olsen, who is standing for re-election to the City Council on the record he has made during the past two years, has been indorsed by the Motion Picture Directors' Association, the United Commercial Travelers, the Commercial Board, the Retail Grocers' and the Retail Druggists' associations, and others. He is president of the Motion Picture Directors' Association and organized the Southern California Industries Association for the purpose of promoting the sale of products manufactured here.

During Mr. Olsen's term in the Council he has been successful in securing the passage of legislation for the safety of the city, the prevention of fire, the improvement of the bureau's excellent work resulting in a movement by the Council to secure reduced insurance rates. He has supported the production and use of local products; he has supported all patriotic measures and has been an ardent advocate of harbor improvements and all legislation relating to the betterment of municipal conditions. Mr. Olsen's committee is composed of members of the Retail Grocers' Association and representatives of other business interests.

Woman Sues Kimball Litch for Quarter Million.

Says Magistrate's Son Falsely Posed as Single Man.

Found After Marriage that He had Another Wife.

A new angle of the Hendricks-Kimball marriage developed yesterday, when Maurine Hendricks, who married Thomas Kimball Litch at Albuquerque, N. M., September 18, 1917, believing him to be a single man, filed suit against him through attorneys Schenck and Kireels, asking $250,000 damages for alleged false and fraudulent representations.

Mr. Litch, son of a multi-millionaire from near Pittsburgh, is alleged to be worth $2,000,000.

Maurine Hendricks while residing in Albuquerque met the wealthy Pittsburger, who informed her his name was Thomas E. Kimball, and she had just accepted a marriage license under the name of Kimball and had just accepted a marriage license under the name of Kimball.

Then came the awakening. The bride discovered a month later that her husband had a wife living from whom she was not divorced, and that his statements to her were false and fraudulent, she alleges.

By way of punishment for his alleged duplicity, she asks $100,000, and as damages for her humiliation and suffering by reason of his alleged fraudulent representations, she demands $150,000.

CASHED MONEY ORDER; FINDS IT'S WRONG ONE.

YOUNG WIFE WHO DOESN'T UNDERSTAND ENGLISH PACES FEDERAL CHARGE.

Mrs. Carmen Ferrer, who says her father, William Walton, is first officer of the United States battleship Maryland, was taken into custody yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Cavanaugh, on San Clemente island, charged with having forged a signature to a money order for $25. The Ferrers were on the island temporarily, on account of the ill-health of Mrs. Ferrer, whose husband is employed as a range rider there.

The accused woman, who is 18 years of age, was seized in Nicaragua, although born in Arizona, and when arraigned before United States District Judge Trippett, yesterday, she pleaded guilty to the charge of her husband, to appear on May 12, to answer to the charge.

For the particular points of interest the people are asked to visit the Fish Harbor. Here is where the Ferrers are to reclaim approximately 600 acres by using silt dredged in widening the main channel to fill in the tide lands. It will be necessary to build a sea wall to prevent the silt from being washed away by the waves, and part of the $4,500,000 bond money will be used for this purpose. The coupon books for ferry tickets for this trip are now being sold at the city hall.

Industrial plants now located at this point are paying the city as high as $1300 an acre rental per annum, and when the proposed 600 acres are reclaimed the annual revenue will be enormous.

TO ANNEX THEMSELVES.

De Dodson Family Allowed to Call Special Election.

The City Council yesterday adopted an ordinance calling a special election for the purpose of annexing to the city a 160-acre tract known as Dodson ranch, and owned by Mrs. Rudelinda de Dodson and the four members of her family. Mrs. de Dodson has always desired that her property be annexed to the city, and twice the citizens of West San Pedro have voted against the proposition to hold an election on the subject.

CITY INVITED TO INSPECT HARBOR

Shipbuilding Plants and Fort to be Open to Visitors.

People to See What has been Done; What is Needed.

Chambers of Commerce Have Charge of the Plans.

"All aboard for the harbor," is the slogan of the Chamber of Commerce today.

This is the day when everything of interest at the port of Los Angeles, from the big coast defense guns at Fort MacArthur to the two great shipbuilding plants, will be open to the public.

The big show is staged to let the people see what has been accomplished by the expenditure of over $11,000,000 of city and United States government money to equip the harbor for the demands of foreign trade and to understand why a $4,500,000 bond issue is needed now to meet the requirements of a growing overseas commerce.

Special trains will leave the Pacific Electric station at 9 and 10 a.m. to connect with the 10 and 11 o'clock boats at the harbor. Boat excursions around the harbor will be conducted in the afternoon also, the boats leaving the landing shed at Pier A, Wilmington, at 1:15 and 2:15 p.m.

FOR AUTO SERVICE.

Automobile service has been provided to convey the crowds to Fort MacArthur from San Pedro, tickets for this trip being contained in a coupon book of transportation and admissions sold at the harbor today for a nominal sum. These books can be obtained also at the office of the Chamber of Commerce.

By special arrangement with Capt. Chas. H. Shackford, in command at the Submarine Base, Uncle Sam's underwater fighting craft will be on exhibition for close-up views.

One of the particular points of interest the people are asked to visit is Fish Harbor. Here is where the Ferrers are to reclaim approximately 600 acres by using silt dredged in widening the main channel to fill in the tide lands.
